PART III—NATIONAL REGISTER OF VOTERS AND VOTERS’ REGISTRATION

9.—(1) The Commission shall compile, maintain, and update, on a continuous basis, a National Register of Voters (in this Act referred to as “the Register of Voters”) which shall include the names of all persons—

National Register of Voters and
registration.

(a) entitled to vote in any Federal, State, Local Government or Federal Capital Territory Area Council election ; and

(b) with disability status disaggregated by type of disability.

(2) The Commission shall keep the Register of Voters in its National Headquarters and other locations as the Commission may determine :
Provided that the Commission shall keep the Register of Voters in—

- (a) electronic format in its central database ; and
- (b) manual, printed, paper-based record or hard copy format.

(3) The Commission shall maintain as part of the Register of Voters, a register of voters for each State of the Federation and for the Federal Capital Territory.

(4) The Commission shall maintain as part of the Register of Voters for each State and the Federal Capital Territory, a Register of Voters for each Local Government or Area Council within the State and the Federal Capital Territory.

(5) The Register of Voters shall contain, in respect of each person, the particulars required in the Form prescribed by the Commission.

(6) The registration of voters, updating and revision of the Register of Voters under this section shall stop not later than 90 days before any election covered by this Act.

(7) The registration of voters shall be at the registration centers designated for that purpose by the Commission and notified to the public.

Continuous
registration.

10.—(1) Without prejudice to section 9 (6), there shall be continuous registration of all persons qualified to be registered voters.

(2) Each applicant for registration under the continuous registration system shall appear in person at the registration venue with any of the following documents—

- (a) birth certificate ;
- (b) national passport, identity card or driver's licence ; or
- (c) any other document that will prove the identity, age and nationality of the applicant.

(3) The Commission shall, within 60 days after each year, make available to every political party the names and address of each person registered during that year.

(4) When a general election is notified by the Commission under section 28 of this Act, the current official Register of Voters certified by the Commission in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall be the official voters' register for those elections.

(5) In the case of every bye-election conducted under this Act, the official voters' register for use at such elections shall be the existing current register relating to the senatorial district or the constituency concerned.

(6) As soon as claims and objections have been dealt with or the period for making claims and objections has expired, the supplementary list shall be included in the revised register, which shall be certified by the Commission as the official Register of Voters for the purpose of any election conducted under this Act and supersedes all previous registers.

11.—(1) For the purpose of maintaining and updating the Voters' Register, the Commission shall appoint such registration, revision or update officers as it may require, provided that such officers shall not be members of any political party.

Appointment of officers.

(2) Any person may raise an objection against any officer during the registration or updating exercise provided that failure to raise such objection shall not vitiate the register.

(3) The officers appointed under subsection (1) shall perform such functions and discharge such duties as may be specified by the Commission, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and shall not be subject to the direction or control of any person or authority other than the Commission in the performance of their functions and discharge of their duties.

13.—(1) A person who before the election is resident in a constituency other than the one in which he or she was registered may apply to the Resident Electoral Commissioner of the State where he or she is currently resident for his or her name to be entered on the Transferred Voters List for the constituency.

(2) An application under subsection (1) shall be accompanied by a copy of the applicant's voters' card and shall be made not later than 90 days before the date of an election in the constituency where the applicant is resident.

(3) The Resident Electoral Commissioner to whom an application is made under this section shall cause the applicant's name to be entered in the Transferred Voters' List if he or she is satisfied that the applicant is resident in a polling area in the constituency and is registered in another constituency.

(4) Whenever an electoral officer on the direction of the Resident Electoral Commissioner enters the name of any person on the Transferred Voters' List for his or her constituency, he or she shall—

(a) assign that person to a polling station or a polling area in his or her constituency and indicate in the list the polling area or polling station to which that person is assigned ;

(b) issue the person with a new voters' card and retrieve his or her previous voter's card ; and

(c) send a copy of the entry to the electoral officer of the constituency where the person whose name has been so entered was originally registered and upon receipt of this entry, that electoral officer shall delete the name from the voters' list.

Demand for information regarding registration.

14. In the performance of his or her duties under this Act, a registration officer and an update officer shall—

(a) demand from any applicant the information necessary to enable him or her to ascertain whether the applicant is qualified to be registered as a voter in accordance with the provisions of this Act ; and

(b) require any voter or applicant to complete an application form for the purpose of the registration, but in the case of an illiterate or disabled person such application form may be completed by the registration officer on the applicant's request.

Power to print or issue register of voters.

15. The Commission shall cause a voters' register for each State to be printed, reproduced, copied, duplicated or saved in electronic format and any person or political party may obtain from the Commission, on payment of such fees as may be determined by the Commission, a certified true copy of any voters' register for the State or for a Local Government or Area Council polling units or registration area within it.

Power to print or issue voters card.

16.—(1) The Commission shall design, cause to be printed and control the issuance of voters' cards to voters whose names appear in the register.

(2) No voter shall hold more than one valid voters' card.

(3) Any person who contravenes subsection (2) commits an offence and is liable on conviction, to a fine not more than ₦500,000 or imprisonment for a term not more than one year or both.

(4) The Commission may, whenever it considers it necessary, replace all or any voters' cards for the time being held by voters.

17. Each electoral officer shall take custody of the voters register for his or her Local Government Area or Area Council under the general supervision of the Resident Electoral Commissioner.

Custody of voters' register.

18.—(1) Whenever a voter's card is lost, destroyed, defaced, torn or otherwise damaged, the owner of such card shall, not less than 90 days before polling day, apply in person to the electoral officer or any other officer duly authorised for that purpose by the Resident Electoral Commissioner, stating the circumstances of the loss, destruction, defacement or damage.

Power to issue replacement permanent voters' cards.

(2) Where the electoral officer or any other officer is satisfied as to the circumstances of loss, destruction, defacement or damage of the voter's card, he or she shall issue to the voter a replacement permanent voter's card.

(3) No person shall issue a replacement permanent voter's card to any voter less than 90 days before polling day.

(4) Where the electoral officer or any other officer is satisfied as to the circumstances of the loss, destruction, defacement or damage of the voter's card, he or she shall issue to the voter another copy of the voter's original voter's card with the word "REPLACEMENT" clearly marked or printed on it, showing the date of issue.

(5) Any person who contravenes subsection (3) commits an offence and is liable on conviction, to a fine not more than ₦200,000 or imprisonment for a term not more than two years or both.

19.—(1) Subject to the provisions of section 9 (5) of this Act, the Commission shall, not later than 90 days to a general election, appoint a period of seven days during which a copy of the voters' register for each Local Government, Area Council or Ward shall be displayed or published for public scrutiny at every registration area and on its official website or any website established by the Commission for that purpose.

Display of the copies of the voters' list.

(2) Upon displaying or publishing the voters register in accordance with this section, the Commission shall accept and consider objections and complaints in relation to the names omitted or included in the voters' register or in relation to any necessary correction, within 14 days after displaying the voters register in accordance with this section.

(3) During the period of the display of the voters' list under this Act, any person may—

(a) raise an objection on the form prescribed by the Commission against the inclusion in the supplementary voters' register of the name of a person on grounds that the person is not qualified to be registered as a voter in the

State, Local Government or Area Council, Ward or registration area or that the name of a deceased person is included in the register ; or

(b) make a claim on the form prescribed by the Commission that the name of a person registered to vote has been omitted.

(4) Any objection or claim under subsection (2) shall be addressed to the Resident Electoral Commissioner through the electoral officer in charge of the Local Government or Area Council

51.—(1) No voter shall vote for more than one candidate or record more than one vote in favour of any candidate at any one election.

Over voting.

(2) Where the number of votes cast at an election in any polling unit exceeds the number of accredited voters in that polling unit, the Presiding officer shall cancel the result of the election in that polling unit.

(3) Where the result of an election is cancelled in accordance with subsection (2), there shall be no return for the election until another poll has taken place in the affected polling unit.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (2) and (3) the Commission may, if satisfied that the result of the election will not substantially be affected by voting in the area where the election is cancelled, direct that a return of the election be made.

Ballot not to be marked by voter for identification.

52.—(1) Where a voter makes any writing or mark on a ballot paper by which he or she may be identified, such ballot paper shall be rejected provided that any print resulting from the staining of the thumb of the voter in the voting compartment shall not be or be deemed to be a mark of identification under this section.

(2) The Commission shall use indelible ink for any thumb mark by voters on ballot papers.

Accidental destruction or marking of ballot papers.

53. A voter who by accident deals with his or her ballot paper in such a manner that it may not be conveniently used for voting, may deliver it to the Presiding officer and if the Presiding officer is satisfied that the ballot paper is spoilt he or she shall issue another ballot paper to the voter in place of the ballot paper delivered up, and the spoilt ballot paper shall be immediately marked cancelled by the Presiding officer.

Visually impaired and incapacitated voters.

54.—(1) A Voter with visual impairment or other form of disability who is otherwise unable to distinguish symbol or who suffers from any other physical disability may be accompanied into the polling unit by a person chosen by him or her and that person shall, after informing the Presiding officer of the disability, be permitted to accompany the voter into the voting compartment and assist the voter to make his or her mark in accordance with the procedure prescribed by the Commission.

(2) The Commission shall take reasonable steps to ensure that persons with disabilities, special needs and vulnerable persons are assisted at the polling place by the provision of suitable means of communication, such as Braille, large embossed print, electronic devices, sign language interpretation, or off-site voting in appropriate cases.

Personal attendance.

55. No voter shall record his or her vote otherwise than by personally attending at the polling unit or voting centres and recording his or her vote in the manner prescribed by the Commission.

Voting at appropriate polling unit.

56. No person shall be permitted to vote at any polling unit other than the one to which he or she is allotted.

Impersonation by applicant to vote.

57.—(1) If at the time a person applies to vote and before he or she has left the polling unit, a Polling Agent, polling unit official or security agent informs the Presiding officer that he or she has reasonable cause to believe that the person is under the age of 18 years or has committed the offence of impersonation and gives an undertaking on a prescribed form to substantiate the charge in a court of law, the Presiding officer may order a police officer to arrest that person and the Presiding officer's order shall be sufficient authority for the police officer to act.

(2) A person in respect of whom a Polling Agent, polling official, or security agent gives an information in accordance with the provision of subsection (1) shall not by reason of the information, be prevented from voting, but the Presiding officer shall cause the words "protested against for impersonation" to be placed against his or her name in the marked copy of the register of voters or part of the register of voters.

(3) Where a person in respect of whom a declaration is made under subsection (2), admits to the Presiding officer that he or she is not the person he or she held themselves out to be, he or she shall not be permitted to vote and shall be handed over to the police or security agent.

(4) A person arrested under this section shall be deemed to be a person taken into custody by a police officer.

58.—(1) The presiding officer shall regulate the admission of voters to the polling unit and shall exclude all persons other than the candidates, polling agents, poll clerks and persons lawfully entitled to be admitted including accredited observers, and the Presiding officer shall keep order and comply with the requirements of this Act at the polling unit.

Conduct at polling units.

(2) The presiding officer may order a person to be removed from a polling unit, who behaves in a disorderly manner or fails to obey a lawful order.

(3) A person removed from a polling unit under this section shall not, without the permission of the presiding officer, again enter the polling unit during the day of the election, and if charged with the commission of an offence in that polling unit, the person shall be deemed to be a person taken into custody by a police officer for an offence in respect of which he may be arrested without a warrant.

(4) The provisions of subsection (3) shall not be enforced so as to prevent a voter who is otherwise entitled to vote at a polling unit from having an opportunity of voting.

(5) In the absence of the presiding officer, the poll clerk shall enjoy and exercise all the powers of the presiding officer in respect of a polling unit.

59. At the prescribed hour for the close of poll, the Presiding officer shall declare the poll closed and no more person shall be admitted into the Polling unit and only those already inside the polling unit shall be allowed to vote.

Closing

votes and forms.

60.—(1) The Presiding officer shall, after counting the votes at the polling unit, enter the votes scored by each candidate in a form to be prescribed by the Commission as the case may be.

(2) The form shall be signed and stamped by the presiding officer and counter signed by the candidates or their polling agents where available at the polling unit.

(3) The presiding officer shall give to the polling agents and the police officer where available a copy each of the completed forms after it has been duly signed as provided under subsection (2).

(4) The presiding officer shall count and announce the result at the polling unit.

(5) The presiding officer shall transfer the results including total number of accredited voters and the results of the ballot in a manner as prescribed by the Commission.

(6) A presiding officer who wilfully contravenes any provision of this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not more than ₦500,000 or imprisonment for a term of at least six months.

Recount.

61. A candidate or a polling agent may, where present at a polling unit when counting of votes is completed by the presiding officer, demand to have the votes recounted provided that the presiding officer shall cause the votes to be so recounted only once.

Post-election
procedure
and collation
of election results.

62.—(1) After the recording and announcement of the result, the presiding officer shall deliver same along with election materials under security and accompanied by the candidates or their polling agents, where available, to such person as may be prescribed by the Commission.

(2) The Commission shall compile, maintain and update, on a continuous basis, a register of election results to be known as the National Electronic Register of Election Results which shall be a distinct database or repository of polling unit by polling unit results, including collated election results, of each election conducted by the Commission in the Federation, and the Register of Election Results shall be kept in electronic format by the Commission at its national headquarters.

(3) Any person or political party may obtain from the Commission, on payment of such fees as may be determined by the Commission, a certified true copy of any election result kept in the National Electronic Register of Election Results for a State, Local Government, Area Council, registration area or Electoral Ward or Polling Unit, as the case may be, and the certified true copy may be in printed or electronic format.

63.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), a ballot paper which does not bear official mark prescribed by the Commission shall not be counted.

Rejection of ballot paper without official mark.

(2) If the returning officer is satisfied that a ballot paper which does not bear the official mark was from a book of ballot papers which was furnished to the presiding officer of the polling unit in which the vote was cast for use at the election in question, he or she shall, notwithstanding the absence of the official mark, count that ballot paper.

64.—(1) The presiding officer shall endorse the word “rejected” on the ballot paper rejected under section 52 (1) of this Act and for any other reason, and the ballot papers shall not be counted except otherwise allowed by the returning officer who may overrule the presiding officer.

Endorsement on rejected ballot paper without official mark.

(2) If an objection to the decision of a presiding officer to reject a ballot paper is raised by a candidate or a polling agent at the time the decision is made, the presiding officer shall add to the word “rejected”, the phrase “but objected to”.

(3) The presiding officer shall prepare a statement on rejected ballot papers, stating the number rejected, the reason for rejection and their serial number, and he or she shall on request, allow a candidate or a polling agent to copy the statement.

(4) A collation officer or returning officer at an election shall collate and announce the result of an election, subject to his or her verification and confirmation that the—

(a) number of accredited voters stated on the collated result are correct and consistent with the number of accredited voters recorded and transmitted directly from polling units under section 47 (2) of this Act ; and

(b) the votes stated on the collated result are correct and consistent with the votes or results recorded and transmitted directly from polling units under section 60 (4) of this Act.

(5) Subject to subsection (1), a collation officer or returning officer shall use the number of accredited voters recorded and transmitted directly from polling units under section 47 (2) of this Act and the votes or results recorded and transmitted directly from polling units under section 60 (4) of this Act to collate and announce the result of an election if a collated result at his or a lower level of collation is not correct.

(6) Where during collation of results, there is a dispute regarding a collated result or the result of an election from any polling unit, the collation officer or returning officer shall use the following to determine the correctness of the disputed result—

(a) the original of the disputed collated result for each polling unit where the election is disputed ;

(b) the smart card reader or other technology device used for accreditation of voters in each polling unit where the election is disputed for the purpose of obtaining accreditation data directly from the smart card reader or technology device ;

(c) data of accreditation recorded and transmitted directly from each polling unit where the election is disputed as prescribed under section 47 (2) of this Act ; and

(d) the votes and result of the election recorded and transmitted directly from each polling unit where the election is disputed, as prescribed under section 60 (4) of this Act.

(7) If the disputed result under subsection (6) were otherwise found not to be correct, the collation officer or returning officer shall re-collate and announce a new result using the information in subsection (6) (a)-(d).

(8) Where the dispute under subsection (6) arose at the level of collation and the returning officer has satisfied the provision of subsection (6) (a)-(d), the returning officer shall accordingly declare the winner of the election.

(9) A returning officer or collation officer, as the case may be, commits an offence if he or she intentionally collates or announces a false result and is liable on conviction to a fine of ₦5,000,000 or imprisonment for a term of at least three years or both.

- (v) any religion or cult, or
- (vi) any portrait of a person living or dead ; or

(d) any symbol or part of a symbol which under the provision of this section continues to be registered by another political party.

(5) Subject to the provisions of this section, the symbol allotted to a political party and in use immediately before the coming into force of this Act shall continue to be available to, and be used by, that political party without payment of the fee.

(6) Where a political party is deregistered, no political association shall be permitted to use the name, symbol, logo or acronym of the deregistered political party within five years of deregistration.

Allocation of symbols.

80. Where a symbol is registered by a political party in accordance with this Act, the Commission shall allot the symbol to any candidate sponsored by the political party at any election.

Merger of
parties.

81.—(1) Any two or more registered political parties may merge on approval by the Commission following a formal request presented to the Commission by the political parties for that purpose.

(2) Political parties intending to merge shall each give to the Commission nine months' notice of their intention to do so before a general election.

(3) The written request for merger shall be sent to the Chairman of the Commission and shall be signed jointly by the National Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer for the time being of the different political parties proposing the merger and shall be accompanied by—

- (a) a special resolution passed by the national convention of each of the political parties proposing to merge, approving the merger ;

(b) the proposed full name and acronym, Constitution, manifesto, symbol or logo of the party together with the addresses of the national office of the party resulting from the merger ; and

(c) evidence of payment of administrative fee as may be fixed by the Commission.

(4) On receipt of the request for merger of political parties the Commission shall consider the request, and if the parties have fulfilled the requirements of the Constitution and this Act, approve the proposed merger and communicate its decision to the parties concerned before the expiration of 60 days from the date of receipt of the formal request: Provided that where the Commission fails to communicate its decision within 60 days, the parties shall within 14 days thereafter challenge the decision of the Commission at the court and establish by cogent and verifiable reason that they have met all the constitutional requirements for merger.

(5) Where the request for the proposed merger is approved, the Commission shall withdraw and cancel the certificates of registration of all the political parties opting for the merger and substitute a single certificate of registration in the name of the party resulting from the merger.

82.—(1) Every registered political party shall give the Commission at least 21 days' notice of any convention, congress, conference or meeting convened for the purpose of "merger" and electing members of its executive committees, other governing bodies or nominating candidates for any of the elective offices specified under this Act.

Notice of convention and congress.

(2) The Commission may, with or without prior notice to the political party attend and observe any convention, congress, conference or meeting which is convened by a political party for the purpose of —

(a) electing members of its executive committees or other governing bodies ;

(b) nominating candidates for an election at any level ; and

(c) approving a merger with any other registered political party.

(3) The election of members of the executive committee or other governing body of a political party, including the election to fill a vacant position in any of the aforesaid bodies, shall be conducted in a democratic manner and allowing for all members of the party or duly elected delegates to vote in support of a candidate of their choice.

(4) Notice of any congress, conference or meeting for the purpose of nominating candidates for Area Council elections shall be given to the Commission at least 21 days before such congress, conference or meeting.

(5) Failure of a political party to notify the Commission as stated in subsection (1) shall render the convention, congress, conference or meeting invalid.

Monitoring of political parties.

83.—(1) The Commission shall keep records of the activities of all the registered political parties.

(2) The Commission may seek information or clarification from any registered political party in connection with any activities of the political party which may be contrary to the provisions of the Constitution or any other law, guidelines, rules or regulations made pursuant to an Act of the National Assembly.

Cap. C23,
LFN, 2004

(3) The Commission may direct its enquiry under subsection (2) to the Chairman or Secretary of the political party at the national, state, local government or area council or ward level, as the case may be.

(4) A political party which fails to provide the required information or clarification under subsection (2) or carry out any lawful directive given by the Commission in conformity with the provisions of this section is liable to a fine not more than ₦1,000,000.

(4) The Chairman and other members of the Area Council Election Appeal Tribunal shall be appointed by the Chief Judge of the High Court of the Federal Capital Territory, Abuja.

(5) The Area Council Election Appeal Tribunal shall—

(a) be constituted not later than 14 days before the election ; and

(b) when constituted, open their registries for business not later than 30 days after the election.

(6) The quorum of the Area Council Election Appeal Tribunal when hearing any appeal from decisions of the Area Council Election Tribunal shall be all three members of the Appeal Tribunal.

(7) An election petition shall be filed within 21 days after the date of the declaration of result of the elections.

(8) The Tribunal shall deliver a judgment in writing within 180 days from the date of the filing of the petition.

(9) An appeal from a decision of an Area Council Election Tribunal shall be heard and disposed of within 60 days from the date of the delivery of judgment of the Tribunal.

(10) The Court in all appeals from Election Tribunal may adopt the practice of first giving its decision and reserving the reason to a later date.

133.—(1) An election petition may be presented by one or more of the following persons—

- (a) a candidate in an election ; or
- (b) a political party which participated in the election.

(2) A person whose election is complained of is, in this Act, referred to as the respondent.

(3) If the petitioner complains of the conduct of an electoral officer, a presiding or returning officer, it shall not be necessary to join such officers or persons notwithstanding the nature of the complaint and the Commission shall, in this instance, be—

- (a) made a respondent ; and
- (b) deemed to be defending the petition for itself and on behalf of its officers or such other persons.

134.—(1) An election may be questioned on any of the following grounds—

- (a) a person whose election is questioned was, at the time of the election, not qualified to contest the election ;
- (b) the election was invalid by reason of corrupt practices or non-compliance with the provisions of this Act ; or
- (c) the respondent was not duly elected by majority of lawful votes cast at the election.

(2) An act or omission which may be contrary to an instruction or directive of the Commission or of an officer appointed for the purpose of the election but which is not contrary to the provisions of this Act shall not of itself be a ground for questioning the election.

(3) With respect to subsection (1) (a), a person is deemed to be qualified for an elective office and his election shall not be questioned on grounds of qualification if, with respect to the particular election in question, he meets the applicable requirements of sections 65, 106, 131 or 177 of the Constitution and he is not, as may be applicable, in breach of sections 66, 107, 137 or 182 of the Constitution.

135.—(1) An election shall not be liable to be invalidated by reason of non-compliance with the provisions of this Act if it appears to the Election Tribunal or Court that the election was conducted substantially in accordance with the principles of this Act and that the non-compliance did not affect substantially the result of the election.

Persons entitled to present election petitions.

Grounds of petition.

Cap. C23, LFN, 2004.

Certain defects not to invalidate election.

(2) An election shall not be liable to be questioned by reason of a defect in the title or want of title of the person conducting the election or acting in the office provided such a person has the right or authority of the Commission to conduct the election.

(3) No election shall be questioned or cancelled by reason that there is a mistake, conflict or inconsistency in the date contained in the result of such election signed by a returning officer or any other officer of the Commission.

Nullification of election by Tribunal or Court.

136.—(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), if the Tribunal or the Court as the case may be, determines that a candidate who was returned as elected was not validly elected on any ground, the Tribunal or Court shall nullify the election and order the Commission to conduct a fresh election not later than 90 days after the—

(a) decision if an appeal is not filed against the decision ; or

(b) nullification of the election by the court having final appellate jurisdiction in respect of the said election.

Cap. C23, LFN, 2004.

(2) Where an election tribunal or court nullifies an election on the ground that the person who obtained the highest votes at the election was not qualified to contest the election, the election tribunal or court shall declare the person with the second highest number of valid votes cast at the election who satisfies the requirements of the Constitution and this Act as duly elected :

Provided that the person with the second highest number of valid votes cast at the election remains a member of the political party on which platform he contested the election otherwise, the candidate with the next highest number of votes in the election and who satisfies the same conditions shall be declared the winner of the election.

Cap. C23, LFN, 2004

(3) If the tribunal or the court determines that a candidate who was returned as elected was not validly elected on the ground that he did not score the majority of valid votes cast at the election, the election tribunal or the Court, as the case may be, shall declare as elected the candidate who scored the highest number of valid votes cast at the election and satisfied the requirements of the Constitution and this Act.

(4) All objections filed in an election petition shall be determined at the time of final judgment.

Effect of non-compliance.

137. It shall not be necessary for a party who alleges non-compliance with the provisions of this Act for the conduct of elections to call oral evidence if originals or certified true copies manifestly disclose the non-compliance alleged.

138.—(1) Where the election is nullified by the Court and notice of appeal against the decision is given within the stipulated period for appeal, the elected candidate shall, notwithstanding the contrary decision of the Court, remain in office and enjoy all the benefits that accrued to the office pending the determination of the appeal and shall not be sanctioned for the benefits derived while in office.

Person elected to remain in office pending determination of appeal

(2) If the Election Tribunal or the Court, as the case maybe, determines that a candidate returned as elected was not validly elected, the candidate returned as elected shall, notwithstanding the contrary decision of the Election Tribunal or the Court, remain in office pending the expiration of the period of 21 days within which an appeal may be brought.

139.—(1) Where the Commission has been joined as a respondent in an election petition, a legal officer of the Commission or a legal practitioner engaged by the Commission shall represent the Commission at the Tribunal or Court.

Legal representation of Commission.

(2) A private legal practitioner or legal officer engaged by the Commission under subsection (1) shall be entitled to be paid such professional fees or honorarium, as the case may be, to be determined by the Commission.

140.—(1) The rules of procedure to be adopted for election petitions and appeals arising therefrom shall be as set out in the First Schedule to this Act.

Rules of procedure for election petition.

(2) The President of the Court of Appeal may issue practice directions to the—

First Schedule.

(a) Court of Appeal, in respect of pre-election and post-election appeals ; and

(b) Election Tribunal, in respect of post-election matters.

PART IX—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

141. No person holding an elective office to which this Act relates or a registered member of a political party shall be eligible for or be appointed to carry out the duties of a returning officer, an electoral officer, presiding officer or a poll clerk, and any officer appointed to carry out any of those duties shall be ineligible for nomination as a candidate for election while he or she continues to hold such appointment.

Persons disqualified from acting as election officers.

142.—(1) The Commission may prescribe a scale of —

(a) remuneration for officers appointed under this Act for the conduct of elections ; and Election expenses by the Commission.

(b) maximum charges in respect of other expenses incurred by an electoral officer, a presiding officer or a returning officer in connection with an election, and may revise the scale as it thinks fit or expedient.

(2) An electoral officer, presiding officer, or returning officer shall, in addition to any remuneration prescribed under subsection (1) (a), be entitled to such sums in respect of expenses not exceeding the prescribed scale, in connection with the conduct of an election as are reasonable.

(3) The Commission may pay such honoraria as it may determine to all other persons and officers who may be involved in one way or the other in conducting an election under this Act, or in carrying out any task in connection with an election or election petition arising therefrom.

(4) All fees and other remunerations approved under subsection (1) shall be paid from the Fund established under section 3 (1) of this Act and shall be paid in such manner as the Commission deems fit.

Secrecy of ballot.

143. No person who has voted in any election under this Act shall, in any legal proceedings arising out of the election, be required to say for whom he or she voted.

Prosecution of offence disclosed in election petition.

144. The Commission shall consider any recommendation made to it by a tribunal with respect to the prosecution by it of any person for an offence disclosed in any election petition.

Trial of offences.

145.—(1) An offence committed under this Act shall be triable in a Magistrate Court or a High Court of a State in which the offence is committed, or the Federal Capital Territory, Abuja.

(2) A prosecution under this Act shall be undertaken by legal officers of the Commission or any legal practitioner appointed by it.

Inspection of documents.

146.—(1) An order for inspection of a polling document or any other document or packet in the custody of the Chief National Electoral Commissioner or any other officer of the Commission may be made by an Election Tribunal or a Court of competent jurisdiction if it is satisfied that the order required is for the purpose of instituting, maintaining or defending an election petition.

(2) A document other than a document referred to in subsection (1) relating to an election and which is retained by the Chief National Electoral Commissioner or any other officer of the Commission in accordance with this section shall be open for inspection on an order made by the Election Tribunal or the Court in exercise of its powers to compel the production of documents in legal proceedings.

(3) Where there is a breach of an order of the Election Tribunal or the Court directed at the Commission, particularly order to produce, inspect or take copies of electoral documents or materials, the Commission shall first be summoned to show cause why it cannot comply with the order to establish disobedience before it can be deemed to have disobeyed the order.

(4) Such disobedience where established, shall attract court sanctions, which shall include the committal by the Tribunal or Court of the Commission's official to whom the order is directed to summary conviction to imprisonment for at least two years, without an option of fine.

147. Without prejudice to other provisions of this Act, the Commission may delegate any of its powers and functions to any National Electoral Commissioner, Resident Electoral Commissioner, electoral officer, any other officer of the Commission or any other officer appointed under the provision of this Act subject to any conditions or limitations which it may consider necessary or expedient to impose and no such delegation shall be construed to limit the right of the Commission to exercise such power, itself.

Delegation
of powers
of the Commission.

148. The Commission may, subject to the provisions of this Act, issue regulations, guidelines, or manuals for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this Act and for its administration.

Regulations.

149. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, any defect or error arising from any actions taken by an official of the Commission in relation to any notice, form or document made or given or other things done by the official in pursuance of the provisions of the Constitution or of this Act, or any rules made thereunder remain valid, unless otherwise challenged and declared invalid by a competent court of law or tribunal.

Validation.

Cap. C23,
LFN, 2004.

150.—(1) In furtherance of the provision of paragraph 11 of Part II of the Second Schedule to the Constitution, the procedure regulating elections conducted by the Commission to Area Councils in the Federal Capital Territory under this Act shall be the same and apply with equal force as the procedure regulating elections conducted to Local Government Areas by any State Commission.

Procedure
for Local Government Election in furtherance of paragraph
11 of Part II
of the Second Schedule to the Constitution.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1), a State Commission shall be deemed to have and exercise the powers of the Commission in respect of the procedure regulating elections to Area Councils under this Act.

(3) Any election to a Local Government Area that is conducted by a State Commission in violation of subsection (1) shall be invalid.

(4) Any official of a State Commission who contravenes the provision of subsection (1) commits an offence and shall be subject to prosecution as if he were an official of the Commission who committed the same offence under this Act.

(2) The security shall be of such amount not less than ₦5,000 as the Tribunal or Court may order and shall be given by depositing the amount with the Tribunal or Court.

(3) Where two or three persons join in an election petition, a deposit as may be ordered under subparagraph (2) shall be sufficient.

(4) If no security is given as required by this paragraph, there shall be no further proceedings on the election petition.

Presentation of Election Petition

3.—(1) The presentation of an election petition under this Act shall be made by the petitioner (or petitioners if more than one) in person, or by his solicitor, if any, named at the foot of the election petition to the Secretary, and the Secretary shall give a receipt.

(2) The Petitioner shall, at the time of presenting the election petition, deliver to the Secretary a copy of the election petition for each respondent and ten other copies to be preserved by the Secretary.

(3) The Secretary shall compare the copies of the election petition received in accordance with subparagraph (2) with the original petition and shall certify them as true copies of the election petition on being satisfied by the comparison that they are true copies of the election petition.

(4) The petitioner or his solicitor, as the case may be, shall, at the time of presenting the election petition, pay the fees for the service and the publication of the petition, and for certifying the copies and, in default of the payment, the election petition shall be deemed not to have been received; unless the Tribunal or Court otherwise orders.

Contents of election petition

4.—(1) An election petition under this Act shall—

- (a) specify the parties interested in the election petition ;
- (b) specify the right of the petitioner to present the election petition ;
- (c) state the holding of the election, the scores of the candidates and the person returned as the winner of the election ; and
- (d) state clearly the facts of the election petition and the ground or grounds on which the petition is based and the relief sought by the petitioner.

(2) The election petition shall be divided into paragraphs each of which shall be confined to a distinct issue or major facts of the election petition, and every paragraph shall be numbered consecutively.

(3) The election petition shall—

- (a) conclude with a prayer or prayers, as for instance, that the petitioner or one of the petitioners be declared validly elected or returned, having polled the highest number of lawful votes cast at the election or that the election may be declared nullified, as the case may be ; and
- (b) be signed by the petitioner or all petitioners or by the solicitor, if any, named at the foot of the election petition.

(4) At the foot of the election petition there shall also be stated an address of the petitioner for service at which address documents intended for the petitioner may be left and its occupier.

(5) The election petition shall be accompanied by—

- (a) a list of the witnesses that the petitioner intends to call in proof of the petition ;
- (b) written statements on oath of the witnesses ; and

(c) copies or list of every document to be relied on at the hearing of the petition.

(6) A petition which fails to comply with subparagraph (5) shall not be accepted for filing by the Secretary.

(7) An election petition, which does not comply with subparagraph (1) or any provision of that subparagraph is defective and may be struck out by the Tribunal or Court.

Further particulars

5. Evidence need not to be stated in the election petition, but the Tribunal or Court may order such further particulars as may be necessary—

(a) to prevent surprise and unnecessary expense ;

(b) to ensure fair and proper hearing in the same way as in a civil action in the Federal High Court ; and

(c) on such terms as to costs or otherwise as may be ordered by the Tribunal or Court.

Address of service

6. For the purpose of service of an election petition on the respondents, the petitioner shall furnish the Secretary with the address of the respondents' abode or the addresses of places where personal service can be effected on the respondents.

Action by Secretary

7.—(1) On the presentation of an election petition and payment of the requisite fees, the Secretary shall immediately—

(a) cause notice of the presentation of the election petition, to be served on each of the respondents ;

(b) post on the tribunal notice board a certified copy of the election petition ; and

(c) set aside a certified copy for onward transmission to the person or persons required by law to adjudicate and determine the election petition.

(2) In the notice of presentation of the election petition, the Secretary shall state a time, not being less than five days but not more than seven days after the date of service of the notice, within which each of the respondents shall enter an appearance in respect of the election petition.

(3) In fixing the time within which the respondents are to enter appearance, the Secretary shall have regard to—

(a) the necessity for securing a speedy hearing of the election petition ; and

(b) the distance from the Registry or the place of hearing to the address furnished under paragraph 4 (4).

Personal service on respondent

8.—(1) Subject to subparagraph (2) and (3), service on the respondents—

(a) of the documents mentioned in paragraph 7 (1) (a) ; and

(b) of any other documents required to be served on them before entering appearance, shall be personal.

(2) Where the petitioner has furnished, under paragraph 6, the addresses of the places where personal service can be effected on the respondents and the respondents or any of them cannot be found at the place or places, the Tribunal or Court on being satisfied, on an application supported by an affidavit showing that all reasonable efforts have been made to effect personal service, may order that service of any document mentioned in subparagraph (1) be effected in any ways mentioned in the relevant provisions of the Civil Procedure Rules for effecting substituted service in civil cases and that service shall be deemed to be equivalent to personal service.

(3) The proceedings under the election petition shall not be vitiated notwithstanding the fact that—

(a) the respondents or any of them may not have been served personally ; or

(b) a document of which substituted service has been effected pursuant to an order made under subparagraph (2) did not reach the respondent, and in either case, the proceedings may be heard and continued or determined as if the respondents or any of them had been served personally with the document and shall be valid and effective for all purposes.

Entry of appearance

9.—(1) Where the respondent intends to oppose the election petition, he shall—

(a) within such time after being served or deemed to have been served with the election petition ; or

(b) where the Secretary has stated a time under paragraph 7 (2), within such time as is stated by the Secretary, enter an appearance by filing in the registry a memorandum of appearance stating that he intends to oppose the election petition and giving the name and address of the solicitor, if any, representing him or stating that he acts for himself, as the case may be, and, in either case, giving an address for service at which documents intended for him may be left or served.

(2) If an address for service and its occupiers are not stated, the memorandum of appearance shall be deemed not to have been filed, unless the Tribunal or Court otherwise orders.

(3) The memorandum of appearance shall be signed by the respondent or his solicitor, if any.

(4) At the time of filing the memorandum of appearance, the respondent or his solicitor, as the case may be, shall—

(a) leave a copy of the memorandum of appearance for each of the other parties to the election petition and three other copies of the memorandum to be preserved by the Secretary ; and

(b) pay the fees for service as may be prescribed or directed by the Secretary and in default of the copies being left and the fees being paid at the time of filing the memorandum of appearance, the memorandum of appearance shall be deemed not to have been filed, unless the Tribunal or Court otherwise orders.

(5) A respondent who has a preliminary objection against the hearing of the election petition on grounds of law may file a conditional memorandum of appearance.

Non-filing of Memorandum of Appearance

10.—(1) If the respondent does not file a memorandum of appearance as required under paragraph 9, a document intended for service on him may be posted on the tribunal notice board and that shall be sufficient notice of service of the document on the respondent.

(2) The non-filing of a memorandum of appearance shall, not bar the respondent from defending the election petition if the respondent files his reply to the election petition in the registry within a reasonable time, but, in any case, not later than 21 days from the receipt of the election petition.

Notice of Appearance

11. The Secretary shall cause copies of the memorandum of appearance to be served on, or its notice to be given to the other parties to the election petition.

Filing of reply

12.—(1) The respondent shall, within 21 days of service of the petition on him file in the registry his reply, specifying in it which of the facts alleged in the election petition he admits and which he denies, and setting out the facts on which he relies in opposition to the election petition.

(2) Where the respondent in an election petition, complaining of an undue return and claiming the seat or office for a petitioner intend to prove that the claim is incorrect or false, the respondent in his reply shall set out the facts and figures clearly and distinctly disproving the claim of the petitioner.

(3) The reply may be signed by the respondent or the solicitor representing him, if any and shall state the name and address of the solicitor at which subsequent processes shall be served; and shall be accompanied by copies of documentary evidence, list of witnesses and the written statements on oath.

(4) At the time of filing the reply, the respondent or his solicitor, if any shall leave with the Secretary copies of the reply for services on the other parties to the election petition with 10 extra copies of the reply to be preserved by the Secretary, and pay the fees for service as may be prescribed or directed by the Secretary, and in default of leaving the required copies of the reply or paying the fees for service, the reply shall be deemed not to have been filed, unless the Tribunal or Court otherwise orders.

(5) A respondent who has an objection to the hearing of the petition shall file his reply and state the objection in it, and the objection shall be heard along with the substantive petition.

Service of Reply

13. The Secretary shall cause a copy of the reply to be served on each of the other parties to the election petition.

Amendment of Election petition and reply

14.—(1) Subject to subparagraph (2), the provisions of the Civil Procedure Rules relating to amendment of pleadings shall apply in relation to an election petition or a reply to the election petition as if for the words “any proceedings” in those provisions, there were substituted the words, “the election petition or reply”.

(2) After the expiration of the time limited by—

(a) Section 132 (7) of this Act for presenting the election petition, no amendment shall be made—

(i) introducing any of the requirements of paragraph 4 (1) not contained in the original election petition filed, or

(ii) effecting a substantial alteration of the ground for, or the prayer in, the election petition, or

(iii) except anything which may be done under subparagraph (2) (a) (ii), effecting a substantial alteration of or addition to, the statement of facts relied on to support the ground for, or sustain the prayer in the election petition ; and

(b) paragraph 12 for filing the reply, no amendment shall be made—

(i) alleging that the claim of the seat or office by the petitioner is incorrect or false, or

(ii) except anything which may be done under the provisions of subparagraph (2) (a) (ii), effecting any substantial alteration in or addition to the admissions or the denials contained in the original reply filed, or to the facts set out in the reply.

Particulars of votes rejected

15. When a petitioner claims the seat alleging that he had the highest number of valid votes cast at the election, the party defending the election or return at the election shall set out clearly in his reply particulars of the votes, if any, which he objects to and the reasons for his objection against such votes, showing how he intends to prove at the hearing that the petitioner is not entitled to succeed.

Petitioner's Reply

16.—(1) If a person in his reply to the election petition raises new issues of facts in defence of his case which the petition has not dealt with, the petitioner shall be entitled to file in the registry, within five days from the receipt of the respondent's reply, a petitioner's reply in answer to the new issues of fact, so that—

(a) the petitioner shall not at this stage be entitled to bring in new facts, grounds or prayers tending to amend or add to the contents of the petition filed by him ; and

(b) the petitioner's reply does not run counter to the provisions of paragraph 14 (1).

(2) The time limited by subparagraph (1) shall not be extended.

(3) The petitioner in proving his case shall have the time limit as prescribed under paragraph 41 (10).

Further particulars or directive

17.—(1) If a party in an election petition wishes to have further particulars or other directions of the Tribunal or Court, he may, at any time after entry of appearance, but not later than 10 days after the filing of the reply, apply to the Tribunal or Court specifying in his notice of motion the direction for which he prays and the motion shall, unless the Tribunal or Court otherwise orders, be set down for hearing on the first available day.

(2) If a party does not apply as provided in subparagraph (1), he shall be taken to require no further particulars or other directions and the party shall be barred from so applying after the period laid down in subparagraph (1) has lapsed.

(3) Supply of further particulars under this paragraph shall not entitle the party to go beyond the ambit of supplying such further particulars as have been demanded by the other party, and embark on undue amendment of, or additions to, his petition or reply, contrary to paragraph 14.

Pre-hearing session and scheduling

18.—(1) Within seven days after the filing and service of the petitioner's reply on the respondent or seven days after the filing and service of the respondent's reply, whichever is the case, the petitioner shall apply for the issuance of pre-hearing notice as in Form TF 007.

(2) Upon application by a petitioner under sub-paragraph (1), the Tribunal or Court shall issue to the parties or their legal practitioners (if any) a pre-hearing conference notice as in Form TF 007 accompanied by a pre-hearing information sheet as in Form TF 008 for—

(a) the disposal of all matters which can be dealt with on interlocutory application ;

(b) giving such directions as to the future course of the petition as appear best adapted to secure its just, expeditious and economical disposal in view of the urgency of election petitions ;

(c) giving directions on order of witnesses to be called and such documents to be tendered by each party to prove their cases having in view the need for the expeditious disposal of the petition ; and

(d) fixing clear dates for hearing of the petition.

(3) The respondent may bring the application in accordance with subparagraph (1) where the petitioner fails to do so, or by motion which shall be served on the petitioner and returnable in three clear days, apply for an order to dismiss the petition.

(4) Where the petitioner and the respondent fail to bring an application under this paragraph, the Tribunal or Court shall dismiss the petition as abandoned petition and no application for extension of time to take that step shall be filed or entertained.

(5) Dismissal of a petition under subparagraphs (3) and (4) is final, and the Tribunal or Court shall be functus officio.

(6) At the pre-hearing session, the Tribunal or Court shall enter a scheduling Order for—

(a) joining other parties to the petition ;

(b) amending petition or reply or any other processes ;

(c) filing and adoption of written addresses on all interlocutory applications ;

(d) additional pre-hearing session ;

(e) order of witnesses and tendering of documents that will be necessary for the expeditious disposal of the petition ; and

(f) any other matters that will promote the quick disposal of the petition in the circumstances.

(7) At the pre-hearing session, the Tribunal or Court shall consider and take appropriate action in respect of the following as may be necessary or desirable—

- (a) amendments and further and better particulars ;
- (b) the admissions of facts, documents and other evidence by consent of the parties ;
- (c) formulation and settlement of issues for trial ;
- (d) hearing and determination of objections on point of law ;
- (e) control and scheduling of discovery inspection and production of documents ;
- (f) narrowing the field of dispute between certain types of witnesses especially the Commission's staff and witnesses that officiated at the election, by their participation at pre-hearing session or in any other manner ;
- (g) giving orders or directions for hearing of cross-petitions or any particular issue in the petition or for consolidation with other petitions ;
- (h) determining the form and substance of the pre-hearing order ; and
- (i) such other matters as may facilitate the just and speedy disposal of the petition bearing in mind the urgency of election petitions.

(8) At the pre-hearing session, the Tribunal or Court shall ensure that hearing is not delayed by the number of witnesses and objections to documents to be tendered and shall pursuant to subparagraphs 7 (b), and (e)—

- (a) allow parties to admit or exclude documents by consent ; and
- (b) direct parties to streamline the number of witnesses to those whose testimonies are relevant and indispensable.

(9) The pre-hearing session or series of the pre-hearing sessions with respect to any petition shall be completed within 14 days of its commencement, and the parties and their legal practitioners shall co-operate with the Tribunal or Court in working within this time table and as far as practicable, pre-hearing sessions shall be held from day to day or adjourned only for purposes of compliance with prehearing sessions, unless extended by the Chairman or the Presiding Justice.

(10) After a pre-hearing session or series of pre-hearing sessions the Tribunal or Court shall issue a report and this report shall guide the subsequent course of the proceedings, unless modified by the Tribunal or Court.

(11) If a party or his Legal Practitioner fails to attend the pre-hearing sessions or obey a scheduling or pre-hearing order or is substantially unprepared to participate in the session or fails to participate in good faith, the Tribunal or Court shall in the case of—

- (a) the petitioner, dismiss the petition ; and
- (b) a respondent enter judgment against him.

(12) Any judgment given under subparagraph (11) may be set aside upon an application made within seven days of the judgment (which shall not be extended) with an order as to costs of a sum not less than ₦20,000.00.

(13) The application shall be accompanied by an undertaking to participate effectively in the pre-hearing session jointly signed by the applicant and the Legal Practitioner representing him.

Hearing of petition to be in open tribunal or court

19. Every election petition shall be heard and determined in an open tribunal or court.

Time and place of hearing petition

20.—(1) Subject to the provisions of subparagraph (2), the time and place of the hearing of an election petition shall be fixed by the Tribunal or Court and notice of the time and place of the hearing, which may be as in Form TF. 005 set out in Second Schedule to this Act, shall be given by the Secretary at least five days before the day fixed for the hearing by—

- (a) posting the notice on the tribunal notice board ; and
- (b) sending a copy of the notice by registered post or through a messenger to the—
 - (i) petitioner’s address for service,
 - (ii) respondent’s addresses for service, if any, or
 - (iii) Resident Electoral Commissioner or the Commission as the case may be.

(2) In fixing the place of hearing, the Tribunal or Court shall have due regard to the proximity to and accessibility from the place where the election was held.

Notice of hearing

21. A tribunal or court, as the case may be, shall publish the notice of hearing by causing a copy of the notice to be displayed in the place which was appointed for the delivery of nomination papers prior to the election or in some conspicuous place or places within the constituency, but failure to do so or any miscarriage of the copy of notice of hearing shall not affect the proceedings if it does not occasion injustice against any of the parties to the election petition.

Posting of notice on tribunal notice board deemed to be good notice

22. The posting of the notice of hearing on the tribunal notice board shall be deemed and taken to be good notice, and the notice shall not be vitiated by any miscarriage of the copy or copies of the notice sent pursuant to paragraph 16.

Postponement of hearing

23.—(1) The Tribunal or Court may, by order made on the application of a party to the election petition or at the instance of the Tribunal or Court, postpone the beginning of the hearing to such day as the Tribunal or Court may consider appropriate having regard at all times to the need for speedy conclusion of the hearing of the election petition.

(2) A copy of the order shall be sent by the Secretary by registered post or messenger to the electoral officer or the Resident Electoral Commissioner or the Commission who shall publish the order in the manner provided in paragraph 20 for publishing the notice of hearing, but failure on the part of the electoral officer or Resident Electoral Commissioner or the Commission to publish the copy of the order of postponement shall not affect the proceedings in any manner whatsoever.

(3) The Secretary shall post or cause to be posted on the tribunal notice board a copy of the order.

(4) Where the Tribunal or Court gives an order of postponement at its own instance a copy of the order shall be sent by the Secretary by registered post or messenger to the address for service given by the petitioner and to the address for service, if any, given by the respondents or any of them.

(5) The provisions of paragraph 21 shall apply to an order or a notice of postponement as they do to the notice of hearing.

Non arrival of Chairman of tribunal or Presiding Justice of the court

24. If the Chairman of the tribunal or presiding justice of the court has not arrived at the appointed time for the hearing or at the time to which the hearing has been postponed, the hearing shall, by reason of that fact, stand adjourned to the following day and so from day to day.

Hearing continues from day to day

25.—(1) No formal adjournment of the Tribunal or Court for the hearing an election petition shall be necessary, but the hearing shall be deemed adjourned and may be continued until the hearing is concluded unless the Tribunal or Court otherwise directs as the circumstances may dictate.

(2) If the Chairman of the Tribunal or the presiding justice of the court who begins the hearing of an election petition is disabled by illness or otherwise, the hearing may be recommended and concluded by another Chairman of the Tribunal or presiding justice of the Court appointed by the appropriate authority.

Adjournment of hearing

26.—(1) After the hearing of an election petition has begun, if the inquiry cannot be continued on the ensuing day or, if that day is a Sunday or a Public holiday, on the day following the same, the hearing shall not be adjourned sine die but to a definite day to be announced before the rising of the Tribunal or Court and notice of the day to which the hearing is adjourned shall immediately be posted by the Secretary on the notice board.

(2) The hearing may be continued on a Saturday or on a public holiday if circumstances dictate.

Power of Chairman of the Tribunal or the presiding justice of the court to dispose on interlocutory matters

27.—(1) All interlocutory questions and matters may be heard and disposed of by the Chairman of the Tribunal or the presiding justice of the court who shall have control over the proceedings as a Judge in the Federal High Court.

(2) After the hearing of the election petition is concluded, if the Tribunal or Court before which it was heard has prepared its judgment but the Chairman or the presiding justice is unable to deliver it due to illness or any other cause, the judgment may be delivered by one of the members, and the judgment as delivered shall be the judgment of the Tribunal or Court and the member shall certify the decision of the Tribunal or Court to the Resident Electoral Commissioner, or to the Commission.

Effect of determination of election petition

28.—(1) At the conclusion of the hearing, the Tribunal shall determine whether a person whose election or return is complained of or any other person, and what person, was validly returned or elected, or whether the election was void, and shall certify the determination to the Resident Electoral Commissioner or the Commission.

(2) If the Tribunal or Court has determined that the election is invalid, then, subject to section 134 of this Act, where there is an appeal and the appeal fails, a new election shall be held by the Commission.

(3) Where a new election is to be held under the provisions of this paragraph, the Commission shall appoint a date for the election which shall not be later than three months from the date of the determination.

Withdrawal or abatement of petition

29.—(1) An election petition shall not be withdrawn without leave of the tribunal or court.

(2) Where the petitioners are more than one no application for leave to withdraw the election petition shall be made except with the consent of all the petitioners.

(3) The application for leave to withdraw an election shall be made by motion after notice of the application has been given to the respondents.

(4) The notice of motion shall state the grounds on which the motion to withdraw is based, supported with affidavit verifying the facts and reasons for withdrawal, signed by the petitioner or petitioners in the presence of the Secretary.

(5) At the time of filing the notice of motion the petitioner or petitioners shall leave copies for service on the respondent.

(6) The petitioner or petitioners shall also file the affidavits required under paragraph 29 together with copies for each respondent and pay the fees prescribed or directed by the Secretary for services.

Affidavits against illegal term of withdrawal

30.—(1) Before the leave for withdrawal of an election petition is granted, each of the parties to the petition shall produce an affidavit, stating that—

(a) to the best of the deponent's knowledge and belief no agreement or term of any kind whatsoever has been made ; and

(b) no undertaking has been entered into, in relation to the withdrawal of the petition, but if any lawful agreement has been made with respect to the withdrawal of the petition, the affidavit shall set forth that agreement and shall make the foregoing statement subject to what appears from the affidavit.

Time for hearing motion for leave to withdraw petition

31.—(1) The time for hearing the motion for leave to withdraw the election petition shall be fixed by the Tribunal or Court.

(2) The Secretary may give notice of the day fixed for the hearing of the motion to the respondents and post or cause to be posted on the Tribunal notice board a copy of the notice.

Payment of costs to respondents

32. If the election petition is withdrawn, the petitioner shall be liable to pay appropriate costs to the respondents or any of them unless the Tribunal or Court otherwise orders.

Abatement of proceedings in election petition

33.—(1) If a sole petitioner or the survivor of several petitioners dies, then, subject to subparagraphs (2) and (3), there shall be no further proceedings on the election petition and the Tribunal or Court may strike it out of its cause list.

(2) The death of a petitioner shall not affect his liability for the payment of costs previously incurred in the course of proceedings in respect of the election petition prior to its abatement.

(3) Where notice, with copies for each party to the election petition supported by the affidavit of two witnesses testifying to the death of a sole petitioner or of the survivor of several petitioners, is given to the Secretary, he shall submit the notice to the Tribunal or Court and if the Tribunal or Court so directs, the Secretary shall—

- (a) serve notice on the other parties to the petition ;
- (b) post or cause to be posted a notice on the Tribunal notice board ; and
- (c) cause notice to be published in conspicuous places in the constituency, in such form as the Tribunal or Court may direct.

Notice of no opposition to petition

34.—(1) If before the hearing of an election petition, a respondent, other than the electoral officer, the returning officer or Presiding officer, gives to the Tribunal or Court notice in writing signed by him or his Solicitor before the Secretary that he does not intend to oppose the election petition, the Secretary shall—

- (a) serve notice on the other parties to the election petition ; and
- (b) post or cause to be posted a notice on the Tribunal notice board.

(2) The respondent shall file the notice with a copy for each other party to the election petition not less than six days before the day appointed for hearing of the election petition.

(3) A respondent who has given notice of his intention not to oppose the election petition shall not appear or act as a party against the election petition in any proceeding on it ; but the giving of the notice shall not of itself cause him to cease to be a respondent.

Countermand of notice of hearing

35.—(1) Where a notice of—

- (a) the petitioner's intention to apply for leave to withdraw an election petition ; or
- (b) the death of the sole petitioner or the survivor of several petitioners ; or
- (c) the respondent's intention not to oppose an election petition, is received after notice of hearing of the election petition has been given, and before the hearing has begun, the Secretary shall forthwith countermand the notice of hearing.

(2) The countermand shall be given in the same manner, and, as near as may be, as the notice of hearing.

Discretion of Tribunals or Court if no reply

36. Where the respondent has not entered an appearance, or has not filed his reply within the prescribed time or within such time as the Tribunal or Court may have allowed, or has given notice that he does not intend to oppose the petition, then if—

(a) there remains no more than one other candidate in the election who was not returned ;

(b) the election petition contains no prayer for a determination that the election was void ;

(c) there are no facts or grounds stated in the election petition or in the reply, if any, or stated in any further particulars filed in the proceedings or otherwise appearing on proof of which it ought to be determined that election was void ; or

(d) the election petition is one complaining of undue return and claiming the seat or office for the candidate who was not returned and the respondent has not raised any formal or written objections to any of the votes relied on by the petitioner, the Tribunal or Court may, if it deems fit, determine the proceedings on the election petition without hearing evidence or further evidence, and in any case, the proceedings shall be continued and determined on such evidence or otherwise as the Tribunal or Court may deem necessary for the full and proper determination of the election petition.

Fees

37.—(1) The fee payable on the presentation of an election petition shall not be less than ₦1,000.00.

(2) A hearing fee shall be payable for the hearing at the rate of ₦40.00 per day of the hearing but not exceeding ₦2,000.00 in all, but the Tribunal or Court may direct a different fee to be charged for any day of the hearing.

(3) For the purpose of subparagraph (2), the petitioners shall make a deposit of not less than ₦2000.00 at the time of presenting his petition.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, the fees payable in connection with an election petition shall be at the rate prescribed for civil proceedings in the Federal High Court.

(5) No fees shall be payable by the Attorney-General of the Federation (acting in person or through any other legal officer) or by a respondent who was the Commission or any of its officers appointed pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

(6) No fees shall be payable for the summoning of witnesses by the Tribunal or Court at its own instance.

Allocation of costs

38.—(1) All costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the presentation of an election petition and to the proceedings consequent thereon, with the exception of such as are otherwise provided for, shall be defrayed by the parties to the election petition in such manner and in such proportions as the Tribunal or Court may determine, regard being had to the—

(a) disallowance of any costs, charges or expenses, which may in the opinion of the Tribunal or Court have been caused by vexatious conduct, unfounded allegation or unfounded objection on the part of the petitioner or of the respondent, as the case may be ; and

(b) discouragement of any needless expenses by throwing the burden of defraying the expenses on the party by whom it has been caused; whether that party is or is not on the whole successful.

(2) Where the Tribunal or Court declares an election to be void, it may, if satisfied that the invalidity was due either wholly or in part to the culpable default of an officer responsible for the conduct of the election in the performance of his duties, order that the whole or part of the cost awarded to the successful petitioner be paid by that officer.

Return of Security

39. Money deposited as security shall, when no longer needed as security for costs, charges or expenses, be returned to the person in whose name it was deposited or to the person entitled to receive it by order of the Tribunal or Court which may be made on motion after notice and proof that all just claims have been satisfied or otherwise sufficiently provided for as the Tribunal or Court may require.

Payment of costs out of security

40.—(1) The Tribunal or Court may, on application made by a person to whom any costs, charges or expenses is payable, order it to be paid out of a deposit made to secure it, after notice to the party by or on whose behalf the deposit was made, requiring him to file a statement within a specified time whether he opposes the application and the ground of his opposition.

(2) Where a dispute arises on an application under subparagraph (1), the Tribunal or Court shall afford every person affected by the dispute an opportunity of being heard and shall make such order there on as it may deem fit.

(3) A person shall be deemed to have been afforded the opportunity of being heard if notice of the appointed time for the inquiry into the dispute was given to him, though the person may not have been present at the making of the inquiry.

(4) A notice to be given to a person under this paragraph may be given by the Secretary handing him the notice or sending it to him by registered letter in the case of —

(a) a party, at the address for service ;

(b) an application for payment, at the address given in his application, so however, that the provisions of this subparagraph shall not preclude the giving of notice in any other manner in which notice may be given or which may be authorised by the Tribunal or Court.

(5) Execution may be levied under an order for payment made by the Tribunal or Court under this paragraph in the same manner and to the same extent as execution may be levied under judgment for the payment of money.

Evidence at Hearing

41.—(1) Subject to any statutory provision or any provision of these paragraphs relating to evidence, any fact required to be proved at the hearing of a petition shall be proved by written deposition and oral examination of witnesses in open court.

(2) Documents which parties consented to at the pre-hearing session or other exhibits shall be tendered from the Bar or by the party where he is not represented by a legal practitioner.

(3) There shall be no oral examination of a witness during his evidence-in-chief except to lead the witness to adopt his written deposition and tender in evidence all disputed documents or other exhibits referred to in the deposition.

(4) Real evidence shall be tendered at the hearing.

(5) The Tribunal or Court may, at or before the hearing of a petition order or direct that evidence of any particular fact be given at the hearing in such manner as may be specified by the order or direction.

(6) The power conferred by subparagraph (5) of this paragraph extends in particular to ordering or directing that evidence of any particular fact be given at the trial—

(a) by statement on oath of information or belief ;

(b) by the production of documents or entries in books ; or

(c) in the case of a fact which is of common knowledge either generally or in a particular district by the production of a specified newspaper which contains a statement of that fact.

(7) The Tribunal or Court may, at or before the hearing of a petition order or direct that the number of witnesses who may be called at the hearing be limited as specified by the order or direction.

(8) Save with leave of the Tribunal or Court after an applicant has shown exceptional circumstances, no document, plan, photograph or model shall be received in evidence at the hearing of a petition unless it has been listed or filed along with the petition in the case of the petitioner or filed along with the reply in the case of the respondent.

(9) Such leave may be granted with costs save where in the circumstance the Tribunal or Court considers otherwise.

(10) The petitioner, in proving his case shall have, in the case of—

(a) Councillor, Chairman and State House of Assembly, two weeks ;

(b) House of Representatives, three weeks ;

(c) Senate, five weeks ;

(d) Governor, six weeks ; and

(e) President, seven weeks, to do so and each respondent shall have not more than 10 days to present his defence.

Calling of witnesses

42.—(1) On the hearing of an election petition, the Tribunal or Court may summon a person as a witness who appears to the Tribunal or Court to have been concerned in the election.

(2) The Tribunal or Court may examine a witness so summoned or any other person in the Tribunal or Court although the witness or person is not called and examined by a party to the election petition, and thereafter he may be cross-examined by or on behalf of the petitioner and the respondent.

(3) The expenses of a witness called by the Tribunal or Court at its own instance shall, unless the Tribunal or Court otherwise orders, be deemed to be costs of the election petition and may, if the Tribunal or Court so directs, be paid in the first instance by the Secretary in the same way as State witness' expenses and recovered in such manner as the Tribunal or Court may direct.

(4) Where the Tribunal or Court summons a person as a witness under this paragraph, the provisions of the Civil Procedure Rules relating to the expenses of persons ordered to attend a hearing shall apply as if they were part of this paragraph.

(5) The Tribunal or Court shall in—

(a) making and carrying into effect an order for the production and inspection of documents used in the election ; and

(b) the examination of any witness who produces or will produce a document, ensure that the way in which the vote of a particular person has been given shall not be disclosed.

Privileges of a witness

43.—(1) A person called as a witness in a proceeding in the Tribunal or Court shall not be excused from answering a question relating to an offence or connected with an election on the grounds that the answer thereto may incriminate or tend to incriminate him, or on the ground of privilege.

(2) A witness who answers truly all questions which he is required by the Tribunal or Court to answer shall be entitled to receive a certificate of indemnity under the hand of the Chairman or the Tribunal or presiding justice of the Court stating that the witness has so answered.

(3) An answer by a person to a question before the Tribunal or Court shall not, except in the case of a criminal proceeding for perjury in respect of the answer, be admissible in any proceeding, civil or criminal, in evidence against him.

(4) When a person has received a certificate of indemnity in relation to an election and legal proceedings are at any time brought against him for an offence against the provisions of this Act, committed by him prior to the date of the certificate at or in relation to that election, the Tribunal or Court having cognizance of the case shall, on proof of the certificate, stay the proceeding, and may, at its discretion award to that person such costs as he may have been put to in the proceeding.

Evidence of respondent

44. At the hearing of an election petition complaining of an undue return and claiming the seat or office for a petitioner, the respondent may, subject to the provisions of paragraph 12 (2), give evidence to prove that the election of the petitioner was undue in the same manner as if he were the person presenting the election petition complaining of the election.

Enlargement and abridgement of time

45.—(1) The Tribunal or Court shall have power, subject to the provisions of section 134 of this Act and paragraph 11, to enlarge time for doing any act or taking any proceedings on such terms (if any) as the justice of the case may require except otherwise provided by any other provision of this Schedule.

(2) An enlargement of time may be ordered although the application for the enlargement is not made until after the expiration of the time appointed or allowed.

(3) When the time for delivering a pleading or document or filing any affidavit, answer or document, or doing anything or act is or has been fixed or limited by any of the sections, paragraphs or rules under or in pursuance of this Act or by a direction or an order of the Tribunal or Court, the costs of an application to extend the time, where allowed or of an order made there on shall be borne by the party making the application unless the Tribunal or Court otherwise orders.

(4) Every application for enlargement or abridgement of time shall be supported by affidavit.

(5) An application for abridgement of time may be ex parte, but the Tribunal or Court may require notice of the application to be given to the other parties to the election petition.

(6) An application for enlargement of time shall be made by motion after notice to the other party to the election petition but the Tribunal or Court may, for good cause shown by affidavit or otherwise, dispense with the notice.

(7) A copy of an order made for enlargement or abridgement of time shall be filed or delivered together with any document filed or delivered by virtue of the order.

Hearing in a Petition

46.—(1) When a petition comes up for hearing and neither party appears, the Tribunal or Court shall, unless there are good reasons to the contrary, strike out the petition and no application shall be brought or entertained to re-list it.

(2) When a petition comes up for hearing, if the petitioner appears and the respondent does not appear the petitioner may prove his petition so far as the burden of proof lies upon him and the Tribunal or Court shall enter a final judgment in the petition.

(3) When a petition comes up for hearing, if the respondent appears and the petitioner does not appear, the respondent shall be entitled to final judgment dismissing the petition.

(4) Documentary evidence shall be put in and may be read or taken as read by consent, such documentary evidence shall be deemed demonstrated in open court and the parties in the petition shall be entitled to address and urge argument on the content of the document, and the Tribunal or Court shall scrutinize or investigate the content of the documents as part of the process of ascribing probative value to the documents or otherwise.

(5) A party shall close his case when he has concluded his evidence and either the petitioner or respondent may make oral application to have the case closed.

(6) Notwithstanding the provision of subparagraph (5), the Tribunal or Court may suo-motu where it considers that either party fails to conclude its case within a reasonable time, close that party's case.

(7) The Secretary shall take charge of every document or object put in as exhibit during the hearing of a petition and shall mark or label every exhibit with a letter or letters indicating the party by whom the exhibit is put in (or where more convenient the witness by whom the exhibit is proved) and with a number so that all the exhibits put in by a party (or proved by a witness) are numbered in one consecutive series.

(8) The Secretary shall cause a list of all the exhibits in the petition to be made which when completed shall form part of the record of the proceedings.

(9) For the purpose of subparagraph (8), a bundle of documents may be treated and counted as one exhibit.

(10) When the party beginning has concluded his evidence, if the other party does not intend to call evidence, the party beginning shall within 10 days after close of evidence file a written address. Upon being served with the written address, the other party shall within seven days file his own written address.

(11) Where the other party calls evidence, he shall within 10 days after the close of its evidence file a written address.

(12) Upon being served with other party's written address the party beginning shall within seven days file his written address.

(13) The party who files the first address shall have a right of reply on points of law only and the reply shall be filed within five days after service of the other party's address.

Motions and Applications

47.—(1) No motion shall be moved and all motions shall come up at the pre-hearing session except in extreme circumstances with leave of Tribunal or Court.

(2) Where by these Rules any application is authorised to be made to the Tribunal or Court, such application shall be made by motion which may be supported by affidavit and shall state under what rule or law the application is brought and shall be served on the respondent.

(3) Every such application shall be accompanied by a written address in support of the reliefs sought.

(4) Where the respondent to the motion intends to oppose the application, he shall within seven days of the service on him of such application file his written address and may accompany it with a counter affidavit.

(5) The applicant may, on being served with the written address of the respondent file and serve an address in reply on points of law within three days of being served and where a counter-affidavit is served on the applicant he may file further affidavit with his reply.

Service of Notice

48.—(1) Where a summons, notice or document, other than a notice or document mentioned in paragraph 7 (1), is required to be served on a person for a purpose connected with an election petition, it may be served by delivering it to the person or by leaving it at his last known place of abode in the constituency with any person there found who is a resident of the abode and appears to be 18 years of age or more.

(2) After a party has given an address for service it shall be sufficient if, in lieu of serving him personally with a document intended for him, the document is served on the person—

(a) appearing on the paper last filed on his behalf as his Solicitor wherever the person may be found or, if the person is not found at his office, on the clerk there apparently in charge ; or

(b) named as occupier in his address for service wherever the person may be found or, if the person is not found at the address, on—

(i) the person there found apparently in charge, if such address is a place or business, or

(ii) a person, other than a domestic servant, there found who is a resident of the address and appears to be 18 years of age or more.

(3) A party may change his address for service by giving notice of his new address for service and its occupier to the Secretary and to each party to the election petition, but, until a notice, is received by the Secretary, his old address for service shall continue to be his address for service.

(4) Where service by one of the modes specified in this paragraph has proved impracticable, the Tribunal or Court may, on being satisfied, on an application supported by an affidavit showing what has been done, that all reasonable efforts have been made to effect service—

(a) order that service be effected in any of the ways mentioned in the provisions of the Civil Procedure Rules relating to substituted service which service shall be sufficient ; or

(b) dispense with service or notice as the Tribunal or Court deems fit.

Two or more candidates as respondents

49. Two or more candidates may be made respondents to the same petition and their case may, for the sake of convenience be heard at the same time but for all purposes (including the taking of security) the election petition shall be deemed to be a separate petition against each of the respondents.

Consolidated petitions

50. Where two or more petitions are presented in relation to the same election or return, all the petitions shall be consolidated, considered and be dealt with as one petition unless the Tribunal or Court shall otherwise direct in order to do justice or an objection against one or more of the petitions has been upheld by the Tribunal or Court.

Electoral officer as respondents

51.—(1) Where an election petition complains of the conduct of an electoral officer, a Presiding officer, returning officer or any other official of the Commission he shall for all purposes be deemed to be a respondent and joined in the election petition as a necessary party, but an electoral officer, a Presiding officer, returning officer or any other official of the Commission shall not be at liberty to decline from opposing the petition except with the written consent of the Attorney-General of the Federation.

(2) If consent is withheld by the Attorney-General under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph the Government of the Federation shall indemnify the electoral officer, Presiding officer, returning officer or such other official of the Commission against any costs which may be awarded against him by the Tribunal or Court in respect of the election petition.

(3) Where the Commission, an electoral officer, a Presiding officer, returning officer or any other official of the Commission has been joined as a respondent in an election petition, a Legal Officer of the Commission or a Legal Practitioner engaged by the Commission or the Attorney-General of the State concerned (acting in person or through any of his Legal Officers), or the Attorney-General of the Federation (acting in person or through any of his Legal Officers) shall represent the Commission electoral officer, Presiding officer, returning officer or other official of the Commission at the Tribunal or Court.

(4) A private Legal Practitioner engaged by the Commission under subparagraph (3) shall be entitled to be paid his professional fees and a Legal Officer so engaged shall be paid such honorarium as may be approved by the Commission.

Duplicate of document

52. In the absence of express provision in this Schedule, a party filing any document or process paper in connection with any step being taken in the proceedings of an election petition shall, unless the Secretary otherwise directs, leave with the Secretary copies of the document or process paper for service on each of the parties to the election petition in addition to three copies which the Secretary may preserve.

Noncompliance with rules, etc.

53.—(1) Noncompliance with any of the provisions of this Schedule, or with a rule of practice for the time being operative, except otherwise stated or implied, shall not render any proceeding void, unless the Tribunal or Court so directs, but the proceeding may be set aside wholly or in part as irregular, or amended, or otherwise dealt with in such manner and on such terms as the Tribunal or Court may deem fit and just.

(2) An application to set aside an election petition or a proceeding resulting therefrom for irregularity or for being a nullity, shall not be allowed unless made within a reasonable time and when the party making the application has not taken any fresh step in the proceedings after knowledge of the defect.

(3) An application to set aside an election petition or a proceeding pertaining thereto shall show clearly the legal grounds on which the application is based.

(4) An election petition shall not be defeated by an objection as to form if it is possible at the time the objection is raised to remedy the defect either by way of amendment or as may be directed by the Tribunal or Court.

(5) An objection challenging the regularity or competence of an election petition shall be heard and determined after the close of pleadings.

Application of rules of court

54. Subject to the express provisions of this Act, the practice and procedure of the Tribunal or the Court in relation to an election petition shall be as nearly as possible, similar to the practice and procedure of the Federal High Court in the exercise of its civil jurisdiction, and the Civil Procedure Rules shall apply with such modifications as may be necessary to render them applicable having regard to the provisions of this Act, as if the petitioner and the respondent were respectively the plaintiff and the defendant in an ordinary civil action.

Practice and procedure of Court of Appeal and Supreme Court

55. Subject to the provisions of this Act, an appeal to the Court of Appeal or to the Supreme Court shall be determined in accordance with the practice and procedure relating to civil appeals in the Court of Appeal or of the Supreme Court, as the case may be, regard being had to the need for urgency on electoral matters.

SUPPLEMENTAL TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

1. The statutory functions, rights, interests, obligations and liabilities of the Independent National Electoral Commission established under the Electoral Act 2006, existing before the commencement of this Act under any contract or instrument, or in law or in equity shall, by virtue of this Act, be deemed to have been assigned to and vested in the Independent National Electoral Commission established under this Act.

2. Any such contract or instrument as is mentioned in subsection (1), shall be of the same force and effect against or in favour of the Independent National Electoral Commission established by this Act and shall be enforceable as fully and effectively as if instead of the Independent National Electoral Commission existing before the commencement of this Act, the Independent National Electoral Commission established by this Act has been named therein or had been a party thereto.

3. The Independent National Electoral Commission established by this Act shall be subject to all the obligations and liabilities to which the Independent National Electoral Commission existing before the commencement of this Act was subject immediately before the commencement of this Act and all other persons shall have the same rights, powers and remedies against the Independent National Electoral Commission established by this Act as they had against the Independent National Electoral Commission of Nigeria existing before the commencement of the Act.

4. Any proceeding or cause of action pending or existing immediately before the commencement of this Act, by or against the Independent National Electoral Commission existing before the commencement of this Act in respect of any right, interest, obligation or liability of the Independent National Electoral Commission existing before the commencement of this Act may be continued or may be commenced and any determination of the court of law, tribunal or other authority or person may be enforced by or against the Independent National Electoral Commission established by this Act to the same extent as would have been against the Independent National Electoral Commission existing before the commencement of this Act.

5. All assets, funds, resources and other movable or immovable property, which immediately before the commencement of this Act, were vested in the Independent National Electoral Commission, existing before the commencement of this Act shall by virtue of this Act and without further assurance, be vested in the Independent National Electoral Commission established by this Act.

6. Any person who immediately before the coming into effect of this Act is the holder of any office in the Independent National Electoral Commission existing before the commencement of this Act shall, on the commencement of this Act, and subject to the provisions of the Constitution, continue in office and be deemed to have been appointed to his office by the Independent National Electoral Commission established by this Act unless the authority by which the person was appointed terminates the appointment.
